

Conscious Dog Training Pricing and Training options

PRIVATE TRAINING

For private in-home lessons, the first session is 90 minutes.

We will begin working with you and your dog(s) to ensure that you guys are a team learning together!

We'll go over the basics, cover the game plan, and we begin training that same day. Follow up sessions are typically 60-75 minutes, depending on your dog and how long he/she can work :) You will also receive homework as additional assistance to keep reinforcing the desired behaviors between lessons. Our goal is to help coach you so that you can train your current dog, and also leave you with the skills and knowledge to train every dog that you may have in the future as well. We also offer packages to get multiple sessions at a discounted rate!

*There is a $25-$40 travel fee depending on your location. (This is for distances over 25 miles)

*We include the aggression and behavior modification pricing so that there aren't any surprises if your goals (now or later) include behavior modification/aggression rehabilitation. If not, then please disregard. Reactive displays are also considered behavior modification.

VIRTUAL TRAINING SESSIONS

Virtual sessions are $125-$200 per hour and can be done over Zoom, Facetime, or Facebook messenger Video, and function exactly the same as our in person training just with a screen between us. We can even demonstrate each exercise with our dogs so you know EXACTLY what to do and what it should look like. Virtual sessions are typically more productive as we are able to not only demonstrate but also coach you through with your dog, while keeping triggers and stress very low. It is also a wonderful option for dogs displaying aggressive behaviors so we can address management strategies and create a training plan prior to meeting in person. Virtual sessions are lovely options for clients that are out of state. Jennifer Burns M.A., CBCC-KA, CPDT-KA has successfully been doing virtual sessions since 2016.

DAY TRAINING PACKAGES

Day training is when a trainer comes to your home when you are not there or unavailable and will train your puppy. Day training is typically completed 2-3x per week and includes private training sessions. They are sold in packs of 10 as the focus is on frequency and consistency. The difference between private training and day training is that private training focuses on training YOU how to train your dog and they are typically scheduled less often. Day training is scheduled more often and is focused on training your dog FIRST and then transferring the skills over to you. In the meantime, you receive homework as well as access to our online Puppies in the Wild course so that you are set up for success for the duration of your training. You will have access to the course for NINE MONTHS! The course also includes professional coaching in the private coaching group on Facebook so you will receive unlimited access to professional dog trainers.

Day Training typically includes 10 sessions as well as 9 months of access to the Puppies in the Wild Course. Packages are typically broken down into 8 day training sessions and 2 private training sessions during which the new skills are transferred to the parent.

Puppies under the age of 20 weeks: 1899

Dogs over the age of 20 week: $2299

Dogs requiring Behavior Modification (aggression, separation anxiety, resource guarding, reactivity, etc): 2749

BOARD AND TRAIN PRICING

For Puppies and Basic Obedience

$200/day

The minimum stay is 7 days but we can accommodate any length of time. For stays longer than 3 weeks, please contact us as you will receive custom pricing.

SPECIAL SUMMER PRICING

$3,675 for 3 weeks including 2 private training sessions and lifetime access to the Puppies in the Wild Course (over $1274 savings)

During the board and train, your dog will be in a loving home environment where they will receive positive, consistent, intensive training that includes multiple mini-training sessions throughout each day. These sessions will be tailored to your individual goals for your dog. A free private training lesson is included at pick up and an additional in-home lesson is included for every 7 days that your dog stays ($320+ value). A minimum stay of 7 days is required for all first-time clients. We work on a variety of issues during board and train, and it is a great fit for many dogs and puppies, but please understand that not every client is a fit for our board and train program.

During a board and train, you will receive daily pictures as well bi-weekly updates with videos and instructions on how YOU can train your dog at home. You will also receive lifetime access to training videos of your dog that are customized for you and a follow-up email with instructions to make sure you are fully equipped to set your dog up for success when your dog comes home. Daily training sessions are a must to make sure your dog transfers his/her new skills to your home following the board and train. Our goal is to train both YOU and your dog to make sure everyone is set up for success.

All NEW clients must complete a private training lesson or a meet and greet over the phone prior to the start of the board and train to make sure your dog is a good fit.

*Additional dogs within the same household will receive a 10% discount for the second dog when doing a board and train with the same trainer.

Behavior modification is an additional $25 fee per day of board and train

Your follow-up private in-home session MUST be completed within 72 hours of completing the board and train.

Puppies in the Wild: A Real Life Journey (virtual puppy school)

$749: The one-time fee provides lifetime access to our online course in addition to 9 months of access to the private coaching group where we host weekly live sessions and coach you through your journey.

$59.99/month: The monthly subscription option provides access to both the course and the private coaching group for the duration of enrollment.

The Puppies in the Wild Course is designed to allow you to work at your own pace and on your own time but with all of the information that you will need for the entire life of your dog. It provides access to a thorough and custom created puppy raising and training course as well as a private Facebook group where you receive INDIVIDUALIZED coaching. You will receive live video lessons, interactive homework, pre-recorded lessons, handouts, a place to be supported, and you will receive access to professional dog trainers so that you can post your own videos and receive professional feedback to make sure you are performing the exercises correctly. We are there to support you every step of the way and most of all so in addition to being a part of a like-minded community of other puppy parents, you will also be able to have a SINGLE place for all of your questions. The course includes over 157 lessons and over 200 pieces of content broken down into mini exercises that are clear and fun and come with instructions on how to seamlessly fit them into your everyday life. Our goal is to help you and your puppy learn EVERYTHING that we would teach in over 16 weeks of a board and train and 40 private lessons but in the comfort of your own home. You will be set up for success from the minute that you enroll in the course. Puppies in the Wild is so comprehensive that it can serve as the only resource that you will need for the lifetime of your puppy. Think of Puppies in the Wild as your single most important resource that can provide you with a lifetime of reinforcement and information for you and your puppy.
